UNGRIPP

ungripp.com / info@ungrippl.com / @UNGRIPP

Process for Risk Assessed Recall Review - RARR

These changes came into force on 1st November 2025

Recalled back to prison There are 4 ways to apply for a RARR assessment Probation By you Solicitor PPCS Probation will submit a Part B PPCS will look at recalls and if they You can submit Your solicitor can submit report within 15 days of your feel RARR should be considered, representations to representations to return to prison. This report they will contact probation to PPCS for RARR PPCS for RARR to shares their assessment of request an assessment. to be considered. be considered. your eligibility for RARR. Assessment PPCS will assess eligibility for RARR Successful Unsuccessful If PPCS assess RARR as successful, release will take place once If PPCS assess RARR as unsuccessful, you will all elements of the Risk Management Plan can be put in place return to the process of release via a parole hearing.

Please Note: This power is unlikely to be used very much for those serving an IPP sentence.

There is not a set timeframe for the release to be actioned.